Gentlemen:

Please accept my very hearty thanks for your gift to the library of the American Numismatic Society - the copy of the volume issued by your bank on Income Tax, Weights and Measures, Stamp Duties and Coinage.

Permit me to extend to you my congratulations on the coinage portion of this volume, which seems to me excellent.

As you probably know, our Society stands ready to be of any assistance in its power should occasion arise whereby it could be of service. If you are not already familiar with its aims and objects, may I say that we would be glad to welcome any member of your staff to our Museum whenever opportunity might present itself.

Very truly yours,

Librarian and Secretary

Gentlemen:

We have in our library, a 1920 edition of your publication on "Income Tax, Weights and Measures, Stamp Duties and Coinage". May I ask whether this has been superseded by a later edition and whether it would be possible to obtain a copy for the library of this Museum? This book is of decided usefulness and embodies a considerable amount of information that might be collected from other sources perhaps, but only with an outlay of considerable time and trouble. Our interest, of course, is in the coinage portion. I shall be grateful for word from you.

Yours very truly,

Secretary.
